

MEMORY MEETS FUTURE

INTRODUCTION

DAY 1:

ARRIVAL DAY

Arriving at Germany!

Otto Weid Memorial

New Synagogue of Berlin

A red fire truck (Feuerwehr) is driving down a narrow street at night. The truck has blue emergency lights on top and is moving towards the camera. The front of the truck displays "FEUERWEHR" and "MAN". The license plate is "B 2124". On the windshield, there are signs that read "ANTS 13/1" and "LHF 1300/1". The street is flanked by multi-story buildings with lit windows. A "No Parking" sign is visible on the right side of the street. The scene is illuminated by the truck's headlights and the ambient light from the buildings.

Was hat die NS-Vergangenheit mit unserer Gegenwart zu tun?
What does the Nazi past have to do with our lives today?

If seems that,
unfortunatly, humans
are fated to repeat history.
What are we willing to do differently this time?

Nie wieder
ist jetzt

La paz sempre with a woman
but the peace never comes.

The new year is not what you think it is. (Remember the 12th anniversary of the Holocaust. 1945-2020)
See you then again.

Never Forget!

Nothing is the best way
to fix something.
Make love
Not War!

Don't believe what is told by doctors.
Believe in humanity.
